Within her growing practice, Tessa works hard to ensure that no stone is left unturned and is always aware of the bigger picture. She knows that many clients are confronted with a conflict that needs a quick resolution, and Tessa delivers results in a practical and efficient manner. Tessa supports her clients in all stages of litigation, from the development of a strategic defense or claim to discoveries or settlement negotiations and at trial. She brings her experience to each and every step. Tessa is fully committed to understanding a case and offers the best of her competencies in any situation. She has experience in the following:

- Assisting in representing insurance companies in claims involving personal injury, property damage and life and disability.
- Working with individuals to create wills and estate plans.
