

Sarah Dever Letson, CIPP/C

Managing Partner, Saint John

Suite 1000, Brunswick House
44 Chipman Hill
Saint John, N.B.
E2L 2A9

Phone: +1.506.632.2764

Fax: +1.506.652.1989

sletson@stewartmckelvey.com

Language(s) spoken: English

Bar Admission(s): New Brunswick, 2006

Legal Assistant(s): Carolyn Bennett

With a practice focusing on cybersecurity, privacy and access to information matters, Sarah advises clients from multiple industries and sectors on proper information collection and disclosure practices and what to do in the event of a privacy breach. She has acted for universities, municipalities, utilities, health record custodians, government institutions and private businesses with respect to access to information requests, privacy complaints, privacy breaches and information practices and policies. Sarah acts as counsel for the Canadian Medical Protective Association and their members in New Brunswick.

Practice Areas

Commercial Transactions/Agreements

Corporate Governance

Cybersecurity

Education

Health

Insurance

Privacy

Professional Regulation & Misconduct

Education & Career

Education

University of New Brunswick, LLB, 2005

University of New Brunswick, B.Sc. (honours), 2001

Activities

Managing partner, Saint John office (2024 – present)

Member, Canadian Bar Association

Member, Canadian Bar Association – New Brunswick branch Privacy Law section

Contributor and/or speaker at annual Stewart McKelvey in-house counsel seminars

Member, AI Task Force, Stewart McKelvey

Accolades

Beaverbrook Scholarship in Law

Certified Information Privacy Professional/Canada, 2022

Lexpert rating: Data Protection & Privacy, 2023

Thought Leadership

Updated guidance on business reporting obligations under Canada's supply chain transparency legislation

February 23, 2024

Publications

Vicarious liability for cyber and privacy-related claims: is your organization protected against internal threats?, Discovery: Atlantic Education and the Law

November 18, 2019