

Curtis Doyle

Associate

65 Grafton St.

Charlottetown, P.E.

C1A 1K8

Phone: +1.902.629.4520 x 74520

cdoyle@stewartmckelvey.com

Language(s) spoken: English

Bar Admission(s): Charlottetown, 2021

Curtis works primarily in the areas of administrative law and civil litigation, representing individuals, municipalities, and regulated entities before courts and tribunals.

Practice Areas

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution

Municipal

Privacy

Professional Regulation & Misconduct

Education & Career

Education

University of New Brunswick, JD (Distinction)

University of New Brunswick, MA

University of Prince Edward Island, BA (Hons.)

Activities

Lecturer, University of Prince Edward Island, Department of Political Science

Chair, Administrative Law Section, Prince Edward Island Branch, Canadian Bar Association

Member, Legislation Committee, Law Society of Prince Edward Island

Accolades

Supreme Court of Canada, Law Clerk to Mr. Justice Moldaver, 2021-2022

Lord Beaverbrook Scholarship in Law

Lieutenant Governor's Medal in Law

Course prizes for highest standing in Contracts, Torts, Property, Intellectual Property, and Conflict of Laws.

Thought Leadership

Land use planning in Prince Edward Island - the year in review

December 21, 2023

Land use planning in Prince Edward Island - the year in review

January 13, 2023

Presentations

Presenter, "Statutory Interpretation for Professional Associations", Stewart McKelvey Regulatory Run Down Seminar

May 30, 2024