

Sean Kelly

Partner

---

Queen's Marque

600-1741 Lower Water Street

Halifax, N.S.

B3J 0J2

Phone: +1.902.444.1742

Mobile: +1.902.471.5359

Fax: +1.902.420.1417

skelly@stewartmckelvey.com

LinkedIn Profile

Language(s) spoken: English

Bar Admission(s): Nova Scotia, 2011

Legal Assistant(s): Angela Atkinson

Sean's practice is focused on management-side human resources, employment and labour law. He works with employers across a wide variety of industries and provides timely, strategic and practical advice. Some examples of his representative work include:

- Defending employers in wrongful and constructive dismissal litigation and grievance arbitrations.
- Appearing before human rights boards of inquiry and defending human rights complaints.
- Workplace and occupational health and safety investigations.
- Accommodation, discipline, performance management and severance advice.

Practice Areas

---

Human Rights

Labour & Employment

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution

Education & Career

---

Education

Dalhousie University, LL.B., 2010

McMaster University, M.A., 2006

Mount Allison University, B.A. (honours), 2003

Activities

Vice Chair, Board of Governors, NSCAD University

Community Member, Admissions Committee, Dalhousie University Medical School

Past President, Sail Nova Scotia

Member, Canadian Bar Association

Member, Canadian Association of Counsel to Employers

Thought Leadership

---

Client Update: Is the $15 per hour minimum wage headed East? A look at Atlantic Canadian wage increases for 2018

March 21, 2018

The Latest in Employment Law: A Stewart McKelvey Newsletter - "You gotta have (good) faith" ... Terminating without notice during the probationary period

April 19, 2017