

Sarah Walsh

Associate

Suite 900, Purdy's Wharf Tower One
1959 Upper Water St.

Halifax, N.S.

B3J 3N2

Phone: +1.902.420.3388

Fax: +1.902.420.1417

swalsh@stewartmckelvey.com

Language(s) spoken: English

Bar Admission(s): Nova Scotia, 2017

Legal Assistant(s): Darlene Blanchard

Sarah is an effective and diligent litigator. She works with a range of clients including individuals, contractors, insurers and commercial entities.

Her practice includes:

- commercial litigation such as business disputes, oppression remedies, breach of contract and product liability;
- defamation and copyright claims;
- builders' liens;
- representing owners, general contractors and subcontractors on construction related matters including negligence and contract claims; and
- environmental litigation.

Practice Areas

Construction

Energy, Environmental & Natural Resources

Insurance

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution

Media, Advertising & Marketing

Education & Career

Education

Dalhousie University Schulich School of Law, JD, 2016

University of King's College, Combined Honours in History and Contemporary Studies, 2011

Activities

Board of directors, Solar Schools Canada

Volunteer, Legal Information Society of Nova Scotia

Member, Canadian Bar Association

Dodgeball player, The Halifax Sport and Social Club

Accolades

CBA National Environmental, Energy and Resource Law Section David Estrin Prize

Gowlings WLG Law & Technology Prize

Clifford Rae Achievement Award

University of King's College Scholarship

University of King's College Entrance Scholarship

Publications

Author, "The International Regulation of Genetically Modified Organisms: the Conflicts, Comforts and Limits of the Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety," Environmental, Energy and Resource Law (May 2016)